From the desk of Dcn. Tim

We see in the readings today Jesus and Moses correct misguided expectation. In the first reading, Joshua, and in the Gospel, John, appear to be protecting a club. They have deduced following God to a clique. Joshua and John expect community to look a certain way and to be limited to the people they know. I know I sometimes give into these misguided expectation myself. I remember when I was young I looked to our Pastor to evangelize our community. It was God who reminded me "I chose you also." While our Pastor was chosen to proclaim the Word at Mass, it was God who chose me to proclaim the Word in the streets.

Today it is the same God who chooses you to proclaim the Word in our homes, in our workplace, in the markets, and even at our sports events. The Church is not some secret club. We come to Mass on Sundays to worship God and in worshipping God; God gives of himself to us in Word and Eucharist. This is why the book of Gospels processed in, is not processed out because the Word of God takes life in our lives. We carry the Word; we carry God out into the world. Moses and Jesus remind us today that all of us play a part in carrying the Word of God into the world. Discipleship is how we live and whom we live for rather than being identified with a particular group. Our Baptism is a call to live out the Catholic faith and to serve one another. Are we living out the Catholic faith? We are called as members of Christ body to live and act as Jesus would. May we always live as members of Christ's body, emulating Christ in all we do and all we say.

Desires of the Heart, Sister Bethany Madonna: Sister Bethany Madonna, vocations director for the Sisters of Life, shares how God not only wants us to know him, but also to give us the desires of our heart and gifts that bring purpose, meaning, and hope. She makes it clear that "receiving is the gift that we give" to the Lord and that he wants to be invited into every aspect of our lives. Speaking from her own life experience, Sister Bethany shows the importance of asking in order to receive all the Lord has in mind for us.

In Spirit and Truth

In preparation for October which is the Month of the Rosary, we have a special In Spirit and Truth article about the Rosary. We will continue the Mass series next week.

The Rosary

October is the Month of the Rosary because Pope St. Pius V dedicated October 7th as the memorial of Our Lady of the Rosary in 1571. He credited a victory over the invading Turks to the intercession of Mary through the rosary.

Why pray the rosary? The Rosary is a summary of the whole Gospel. Not just a meaningless repetition of words but, a meditation on the Gospel since the 12th Century. The repetition in the Rosary is meant to lead one into restful and meditative prayer related to each Mystery. This gentle meditative repetition allows the Holy Spirit to work the Gospel into our hearts

Fatima, Portugal Apparitions: During these apparitions to three children, Our Lady insisted we pray the Rosary and called herself "Our Lady of the Rosary." Mary instructed them to form images of the mysteries in their mind and meditate on these gospel scenes as they prayed the Hail Mary for that decade. For example, the first sorrowful mystery is The Agony in the Garden. While praying the 10 Hail Mary's for that decade, one might consider Jesus' suffering in the Garden of Gethsemane. In order to visualize, it helps to know the Gospel passages regarding the mysteries.

The prayers of the Our Father and the Hail Mary are taken from Scripture verses. The Hail Mary is taken from two Scripture verses. The first half comes from Luke's Gospel account of the Angel Gabriel's annunciation to Mary that she was called to be the Mother of God's Son (Lk 1:26-56). The latter part is the greeting of Mary's cousin Elizabeth when Mary came to visit her (Lk 1:42).

Want to know how to pray the rosary? go to www.rosary.holyspiritfremont.org

Fun Facts:
- The word Rosary means "Crown of Roses".
- Holy Spirit Church has a stained-glass image of Our Lady of the Rosary. Find it!
