Our Lady of Fatima Mass

“Be strong, fear not!” Division, hostility, oppression and injustices are not what God desires for us. Yet we must live in accordance with how God views the world. When the Israelites turned away from the law of God, destruction followed. However, God restores what is broken. God returns exiles to the Promised Land, gives sight to the blind and makes the deaf hear and the mute speak. Jesus is the pinnacle of this fulfillment.

Jesus fulfills God’s promises. While Jesus performs great miracles (makes the deaf hear and mute speak), there is far more happening here. His actions are signs that what was promised in Isaiah is coming to pass. This is not just about one man’s healing, but rather the restoration of the world. This restoration goes even beyond the Jewish people but includes Gentiles as well.

I would like to introduce you to Formed, a gift that Holy Spirit Parish has purchased for you and your family. Our Father

We have just finished singing the “Amen” and we all stand to pray the Our Father. When we say the Our Father, that prayer that everyone knows since before they can remember, a temptation to boredom might creep in. Here are three ideas to keep the praying of this prayer fresh, as if you are saying it for the first time.

1) It comes from God Himself!
Christ taught His disciples and us the Our Father in Matthew 6:9-13. If there is anyone who knows how to speak to God, it is Christ, the beloved Son of the Father. Have you ever felt like you wanted to pray but did not know where to start? Start with the prayer Christ gave us! You share in the sonship of Christ. You are a child of God and the Father loves you more tenderly than the best of parents.

2) It prepares us for Holy Communion
From the first centuries of the Church, many theologians have written that the Our Father prepares our hearts for receiving Holy Communion. As Christ is present on the altar in the Holy Eucharist, we as Christians share in His prayer and offering to the Father. The Eucharist is the “daily bread” we pray for and we purify our hearts by saying “forgive us our trespasses.” Christ taught us to approach the altar without holding resentment (see Matthew 5:23-24), which is why we say, “as we forgive those who trespass against us.” Praying this prayer makes us more like the One we are about to receive in Holy Communion.

3) It joins us to Christians of all times.
Bl. Pope Paul VI reminded us that in the early days of Christianity, the Our Father was said three times a day (see Laudis Canticum, 8). The Our Father has played an important part in Christian prayer since the very beginning. Whenever you say it, you join the voices of brothers and sisters throughout the centuries.
