Our readings this week focus on two widows who willing give everything they have. Widows are used for emphasis in these readings because at the time, a widow would have nothing. All property and money belonged to the husband and when he died, it would go to his brothers, leaving the widow alone in the world without what we would today call a safety net.

A few weeks ago we heard Jesus tell a rich man, if you want to follow me, you need to sell all your possessions.

While we usually equate our possessions with money and material goods, there are other possessions that we also need to take into account. The possessions we hold onto that are near and dear to our hearts. The possessions that even if we are able to cast them off, tend to come back to us. Those possessions are the seven deadly sins: pride, envy, anger, sloth, avarice, gluttony, and lust?

These are the possessions that we need to remove from our life before we can truly say, “Yes, Jesus, we will follow you”.

Mass Series Conclusion

GO...
After receiving the blessing of God through the priest, the priest or deacon tells those who are assembled any number of dismissals: “Go forth, the Mass is ended”, “Go and announce the Gospel of the Lord”, “Go in peace, glorifying the Lord by your life.” Regardless of what is used, the idea is the same: go into the world with what you have received.

...FORTH!
Sometimes the dismissal uses the word “forth,” which merriam-webster.com defines as “onward in time, place, or order” or it can also mean “out into notice or view.” The encounter with the Lord at Mass should always be a moment to go deeper in our spiritual life: do I walk away knowing Christ better? Do I more deeply understand what it is He has done for me? Every time I receive the Eucharist, I should do so with greater love, greater desire, greater reverence. As I leave, I am already looking forward to the next time I come to Mass so that I can be even more ready for the next time.

But we are also going out, “into view” of the world. The world watches us...and waits! Whether they know it or not (and regardless of whether we know it or not!) the world waits for the One that we have: Christ. We go into the world to proclaim the Gospel, wherever we are and in whatever we are doing. The world around us longs for the One that we have met at Mass. What can I be doing to help those around me come to know Him?

- Presence is a study on why we believe what we believe about the Eucharist. Many of our parishioners gathered to watch and discuss this three-part study.
- The Lamb’s Supper is a talk from Dr. Scott Hahn based on his bestselling book on the connection between the Mass and that very mysterious last book of the Bible called Revelation.
- Hostia is an episode examining a deeper study of the Holy Eucharist in the Mass and the importance of Eucharistic Adoration.
