Filipino Society $5 Meal Deal
This Sunday, July 14 | Peace Center

The Filipino Society is hosting their $5 Meal Deal after all the morning and 12:30 pm Masses. Get a great meal for a great deal! Proceeds will help fund the baptismal font project. Thank you for your support!

New Stained-glass Windows
A Once-in-a-Lifetime Opportunity

We are looking for sponsors to fund our latest beautification project—the installation of stained-glass windows in the St. John side of the church. We are excited to extend the sponsorship opportunity to our parishioners. For more details, informational brochures are available in the church or in the Parish Office. Be a part of the history of Holy Spirit Church!

Lost and Found

We have some things in our Lost & Found bin, including a couple of valuable items: a tablet and a woman’s ring. To claim your lost item, please visit the Parish Office and provide a detailed description of the article.

Faith Formation

Registration for the 2019-2020 Faith Formation year is now open. There are a few ways to register for Teen Confirmation, First Communion, Youth Continuing Education, RCIA and Adult Confirmation: 1) go online at www.holyspiritfremont.org – click on “Connect” then “Learn”; 2) download the registration forms from the website; 3) visit us at the De Sousa House.

Adoration Chapel

Spend one hour with the Lord. Our Adoration Chapel is open 6:00 am to 9:00 pm everyday. All are welcome to sit, to reflect, and to pray with Jesus. We need Adorers to be with our Lord on a regular basis, especially on Fridays, Saturdays, and Sundays. To sign up for a weekly commitment, please visit the Parish Office.
Sitting with Scripture is so fascinating. I particularly enjoy sharing in a group about Scripture because I get to hear so many different perspectives. In Scripture we see the multi-faceted God who speaks of His love through His Word. This week’s Gospel is a great example.

We have heard the Parable of the Good Samaritan many times. And when asked to contemplate on this story and what our own response might be, how often we have said: Yes! I have to be a good neighbor. But have we ever really reflected on the Good Samaritan? I believe it is truly Jesus who is the Good Samaritan and it is us in need of His tenderness. We have been robbed of original holiness through original sin and have been deeply wounded by our sin and the sin of others. We lie on the road waiting for a savior. In life, we often think the hero will be somebody in our life – a friend, family member or loved one – and when they disappoint us, we are left empty. It is in this moment of despair we finally recognize Jesus’ help.

Jesus comes to heal and restore us, not with some standard oil or two-buck chuck for wine; rather, Jesus brings us sacramental oils and His Precious Blood to mend our brokenness. Jesus pays the price for our care with His Cross and instructs the Church (the Innkeeper) to care for us.

As we hear in the Gospel, Jesus instructs the scholar to “do likewise.” If Jesus commands us to do likewise, it is only because it was He who first cared for us. Let us today look for opportunities to serve our neighbor just as Christ has served us.

FORMED pick of the week

Here’s the Sitch...

- Baptismal Font: Construction is on schedule—we’re in the heavy demolition phase now. We’re close to covering most of the costs, but... donations are still greatly appreciated!
- Exterior Painting: Paintwork to the exterior walls of the church begins July 15th.
- Stained-glass Windows: The new stained-glass project for the St. John side of the church is an exciting opportunity to become part of the history of our parish. For sponsorship details, please pick up an informational brochure from the church or the Parish Office.

Blessings,

Fr. Ken

Fifteenth Sunday in Ordinary Time

First Reading – Dt 30:10-14

Moses said to the people:
"If only you would heed the voice of the LORD, your God, and keep his commandments and statutes that are written in this book of the law, when you return to the LORD, your God, with all your heart and all your soul.
"For this command that I enjoin on you today is not too mysterious and remote for you. It is not up in the sky, that you should say, 'Who will go up in the sky to get it for us and tell us of it, that we may carry it out?'
Nor is it across the sea, that you should say, 'Who will cross the sea to get it for us and tell us of it, that we may carry it out?'
No, it is something very near to you, already in your mouths and in your hearts; you have only to carry it out."

Responsorial Psalm – Ps 69:14, 17, 30-31, 33-34, 36, 37
Or Ps 19:8, 9, 10, 11

Second Reading – Col 1:15-20

Christ Jesus is the image of the invisible God, the firstborn of all creation.
For in him were created all things in heaven and on earth, the visible and the invisible, whether thrones or dominions or principalities or powers; all things were created through him and for him.
He is before all things, and in him all things hold together.
He is the head of the body, the church.
He is the beginning, the firstborn from the dead, that in all things he himself might be preeminent.
For in him all the fullness was pleased to dwell, and through him to reconcile all things for him, making peace by the blood of his cross through him, whether those on earth or those in heaven.

Alleluia – Cf. Jn 6:63c, 68c

R. Alleluia, alleluia.

Your words, Lord, are Spirit and life; you have the words of everlasting life. R.

Gospel – Lk 10:25-37

There was a scholar of the law who stood up to test Jesus and said,
"Teacher, what must I do to inherit eternal life?"
Jesus said to him, "What is written in the law? How do you read it?"
He said in reply, "You shall love the Lord, your God, with all your heart, with all your being, with all your strength, and with all your mind, and your neighbor as yourself."
He replied to him, "You have answered correctly; do this and you will live."
But because he wished to justify himself, he said to Jesus, "And who is my neighbor?"
Jesus replied,
"A man fell victim to robbers as he went down from Jerusalem to Jericho. They stripped and beat him and went off leaving him half-dead.
A priest happened to be going down that road, but when he saw him, he passed by on the opposite side. Likewise a Levite came to the place, and when he saw him, he passed by on the opposite side. But a Samaritan traveler who came upon him was moved with compassion at the sight. He approached the victim, poured oil and wine over his wounds and bandaged them.
Then he lifted him up on his own animal, took him to an inn, and cared for him.
The next day he took out two silver coins and gave them to the innkeeper with the instruction, 'Take care of him. If you spend more than what I have given you, I shall repay you on my way back.' Which of these three, in your opinion, was neighbor to the robbers' victim?"
He answered, "The one who treated him with mercy."
Jesus said to him, "Go and do likewise."
