Come, Holy Spirit, fill the hearts of your faithful and kindle in them the fire of your love. Send forth your Spirit and they shall be created. And You shall renew the face of the earth.

FROM THE DESK OF FR. KEN...

Who is Jesus for us? What is the name for us that would best fit him? The disciple of Isaiah called him the Servant of God. St Paul calls him Jesus Christ. John the Baptist points him out as the Lamb of God. Jesus is all these. And these images imply what we ourselves have to be for him: servants, saviors, if necessary, victims. Let us celebrate each Eucharist with Jesus.

In the First reading, the prophet Isaiah tells us that a servant of God will come and be the light not only of Israel but of all the nations. The Christian community recognized Jesus as this servant.

In the Second reading, Paul tells us that as an apostle, he considered himself a servant whose task was to proclaim Jesus Christ as the Lord of all. Is Jesus the Lord of our lives? Do we proclaim him as our Lord?

And in the Gospel, St. John the Evangelist tells us that John the Baptist bears witness that Jesus is the Savior, the Lamb of God who takes away the sins of the world. Jesus is the promised servant of God and people.

Furthermore, John the Baptist recognizes Jesus as the Lamb of God. At every Eucharist, before Holy Communion, the priest celebrant says, "Behold the Lamb of God." Like the Hebrews in Egyptian bondage, we have been liberated from the slavery of sin through the blood of a lamb—Christ.

And like Isaiah's humble servant, Christ, with perfect submission, hands himself over for our salvation. If Christ had not become the Lamb, we would not be family members. Gratitude is the only motive for goodness. We are saved by God and then made his children. No Christmas present can match that.

For a deeper understanding of the power of the Eucharist and the Real Presence of Christ, watch my suggested FORMED PICK OF THE WEEK—Hostia: The Power and Presence of the Eucharist

FORMED® FORMED PICK OF THE WEEK

HOSTIA: THE POWER AND PRESENCE OF THE EUCHARIST

<https://watch.formed.org/videos/hostia-the-power-and-presence-of-the-eucharist>

"This powerful and inspiring film begins with the Gospel accounts of how Jesus Christ instituted the Eucharist. It explains how the sacrifices and offerings in the Old Testament prefigured the perfect and final sacrifice in Jesus Christ Himself—the Lamb of God who takes away the sins of the world. The constant belief of Christians in the Real Presence throughout history is clearly demonstrated along with examples of heroic witnesses for the Faith. The Holy Sacrifice of the Mass is explained as the center of the Christian life where Jesus becomes truly present in the Eucharist. The practices of Eucharistic Adoration and Benediction are presented as the real power behind any evangelization and essential to reviving faith in every Catholic parish."

John testified further, saying, "I saw the Spirit come down like a dove from heaven and remain upon him. I did not know him, but the one who sent me to baptize with water told me, 'On whomever you see the Spirit come and remain, he is the who will baptize with the Holy Spirit.' Now I have seen and testified that he is the Son of God."

- John 1:32-34

HERE'S THE SITCH...

The Baptismal Font is still on schedule for completion at the end of January.

We have collected $43,645.00 in sponsorships towards our goal of $50,000 so far for the stained-glass window dedicated to Fr. Mat—we're so close! Please consider being part of this beautiful tribute. Sponsorships of $2,500 or more will receive a dedication plate on the plaque on the All Saints side of our Church.

We still have the following new stained-glass windows available for sponsorship. Individual, family or group sponsors will receive a dedication on the glass:

- Joy, Modesty, Gentleness, Self-Control, and Chastity. These are $10,000 each.
- Southside windows next to the side entrance door (below the large "Holy Spirit" window). To sponsor—$12,000 for the narrow window and $15,000 for the wide window.
- Also available are the soon-to-be-installed vertical stained-glass windows flanking the St. John's side entrance doors. One tall window and two shorter windows available; $20,000 and $12,000 each respectively. These will contain the "Seven Gifts of the Holy Spirit" (3 gifts listed on shorter window, 4 gifts listed on taller window).

With the exception of the St. John entrance windows, the new stained-glass windows have been installed. We can add the dedications at any time. Please see Jeff Van der Sluis in the Parish Office to discuss sponsorships and payment arrangements.

Blessings,
Fr. Ken
