FROM THE DESK OF DCN. STEVE...

Today we celebrate the Presentation of the Lord.

It was at this time that Mary and Joseph brought Jesus to the temple where he was first presented to the world and to all of us. On that day there was a devout man named Simeon who had waited patiently for a long time to witness this moment much like a new parent waiting for the birth of their first child, then finally seeing and holding this special child. While all children of the Jewish faith are brought to the temple, it was through the Holy Spirit that Simeon recognized Jesus as the Messiah.

Do we ever pray to the Holy Spirit, that we, too, can recognize Jesus' imprints in our life?

Do we have the patience like Simeon to keep vigil for that moment when Christ appears to us?

And when we do recognize Christ, do we tell others or do we keep it a secret, afraid no one would believe us?

Let us tell our stories about Christ's manifestation in our life. Do not be afraid or ashamed; our testimony will help others grow their faith.

Maybe he was the stranger who suddenly showed up in our time of need.

Maybe our eyes were opened to his presence when receiving the Eucharist, or when praying in the adoration chapel.

Let us pray to God that we are always vigilant so that when Christ appears, we recognize him.

Just as Simeon and Anna share this good news, let us also be ready to share our encounter with the Lord.

May God bless you with his presence.

Deacon Steve and Annette

Go, Saint Francis of Assisi, 49ers. Play for us.
Amen.
