FROM THE DESK OF DCN. STEVE...

Annette and I pray all is good with you and your family. I know these times can turn scary, even lonely, while we may be searching for guidance, hope, and love to get through these times.

It is times like this we need our faith. We as Catholics know our road to Heaven may be curvy, it even may have some speed bumps. But we know at the end of this road, we will meet our savior, our loving God, and all those family and friends who we have missed so much.

It is my faith in God that carried me through the passing of my father several months back. It gives me comfort to know that I will see him again, without his dementia. We always need to see death with the hope of reuniting with our loved ones, and especially our Lord Jesus Christ.

We will never know the time or the hour of our passing. Many of us have had our wills and funeral arrangements put in place, so our loved ones would not have worry about such details while grieving. I have personally seen a very strong and devout Catholic not have a funeral mass because the child had no direction of what they would have wanted.

We as Catholics need to be ready for our future in Heaven. Build upon your faith. Bring Christ into your life, make our Lord a part of you. Be an example to others and show your love for God in all you do.

When God calls each of us, let us be ready to leave this world with our i's dotted and our t's crossed. Have a smile from ear to ear when we see and meet our Lord, for we have been waiting, not with flasks, but with barrels of oil.

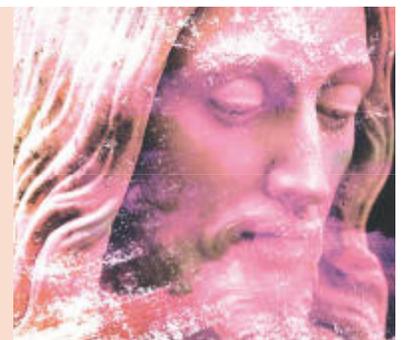

May God continue to bless us with his graces. Keep the faith.

Dn. Steve and Annette

Afterwards the other virgins came and said, 'Lord, Lord, open the door for us!' But he said in reply, 'Amen, I say to you, I do not know you.' Therefore, stay awake,* for you know neither the day nor the hour..

Matthew 5:11-12a

SERVE

Welcome to Holy Spirit, Sr. Asha!

I feel immensely blessed and joyful to be here in this faith-filled and vibrant parish community of Holy Spirit Fremont. Thank you so much for your warm welcome!

I am Sister Asha Kooliyadan. I belong to the Congregation of the Mother of Carmel (C.M.C) which was founded in India in 1866 bearing Carmelite Spirituality. There are about 6000 sisters ministering in different countries.

Currently, I live in a community with three other Carmelite sisters in Hercules. Professionally, I am a nurse and worked as registered nurse for the past 20 years. In the last two years, I worked in a parish and enjoyed it well.

I am happy to be part of our parish community as the new Safe Environment Coordinator. I believe that we are a people called to love God and our neighbor freely and joyfully. An essential part of this call is to create a safe environment in our community. It is my prayer and hope that we work together in fulfilling this fundamental responsibility to one another.

Once again, I am very grateful to you all for your warm welcome and for making me feel at home. Though the pandemic separates us to some extent, I am united with you in spirit. I pray that the Holy Spirit guides us safely through this difficult time.

Please keep me in your prayers as well to fulfill my duty according to God's gracious will. God Bless you all.

With Love & Prayers,

Sr. Asha

Catholic Funeral & Cemetery Services

As part of the Oakland Diocese, Catholic Funeral & Cemetery Services (CFCS) belongs to all parishes and their families to make “in advance” their cemetery and funeral plans. Normally, CFCS ministry advisers meet with parishioners after mass, but the pandemic has put a halt to reaching out to families at parish centers and meeting rooms. We would like to continue the conversation with the parishioners of Holy Spirit in a simple way. Text the word “holy” and send to 474747. Fill out the short form and we will reply by phone or email. This will allow families to find out more about the range of Catholic Plans and Services offered by CFCS.
