Come, Holy Spirit, fill the hearts of your faithful and kindle in them the fire of your love. Send forth your Spirit and they shall be created. And You shall renew the face of the earth.

FROM THE DESK OF DN. BERNARD...

Leaving is always a painful experience for people who have known each other for some time. Emotions will run high especially when that person had touched your life. This is most often the case when a person has passed away.

The Ascension marks the glorious return of Jesus to God the Father where He is rightfully seated. As faithful Catholics, we always proclaim this belief whenever we are at Mass, pray the rosary or the Divine Mercy chaplet; we always profess our faith when we say the Creed.

Jesus' departure doesn't mean that He leaves us on our own; instead, He promised us His constant and abiding presence through the power of the Holy Spirit who will guide us and be with us.

The Ascension of our Lord invites us to follow Christ in two directions: 1) horizontally - to spread the Gospel here on earth; and 2) vertically - to have that constant connection to God, keeping our focus and never losing sight of Him.

Our goal is to be reunited with Jesus and with the Father in heaven. Before this can happen, we should participate actively in the mission that Jesus started.

His work here on earth has been fulfilled but his mission continuous to move on. A priest that I know would always say: if you want to honor a person whom you dearly love, live your life with kindness and with love. The things that you do for yourself will die with you, but the things you do for others will live on forever.

Surely indeed, if we love Jesus, we will continue His good works reflecting His very presence in our lives.

Jesus' Ascension is a challenge for all of us. As baptized Christians, we are commissioned "to proclaim the Good News to all creation." We are told to go out to the whole world but before we do so, let us start in our own homes. To evangelize is to bring hope to others.

Jesus left us an inheritance – our faith! Share it by proclaiming it to everyone we meet. Let our lives be a witness for Christ!

Wishing you all a blessed Ascension Sunday!
Dn. Bernard & Jean

FORMED FOR MISSION

<https://watch.formed.org/formed-now-1/season:1/videos/formed-for-mission-the-great-commission>

Dr. Ben Akers and Taylor Kemp sit down for a weekly show on evangelization and mission.

"Evangelizing is in fact the grace and vocation proper to the Church, her deepest identity. She exists in order to evangelize" (Evangelii nuntiandi, 14).

Lifting up his eyes to heaven, Jesus prayed saying: "As you sent me into the world, so I sent them into the world. And I consecrate myself for them, so that they also may be consecrated in truth."

John 17:18-19

Bring Your Marriage into the Church - Group Convalidation September 18, 2021

Catholic Church law requires baptized Catholics to marry before a Catholic priest or deacon. In Catholic tradition, the vows exchanged by the couple are a sacred pact between each other with Christ as their partner. Studies have shown that couples who recognize God's presence in their relationships experience greater contentment and are more likely to have a lifelong marriage. Couples who bring their marriage into the Church welcome God's grace and special blessings upon their marriage. If your vows were exchanged in the presence of ministers from other religious traditions or civil officials, we invite you to bring new meaning to your relationship by embracing the vocation of marriage. This group convalidation is for couples married outside the Catholic Church and if this is the only marriage for both persons. For more information, contact Josephine at 510.456.4969 or Fr. Peter at frpeter@holyspiritfremont.org.

Please register by May 31, 2021.
