FROM THE DESK OF DN. CHUCK...

This Sunday marks the Solemnity of the Most Holy Body and Blood of Jesus Christ, a solemn commemoration of the Institution of the Eucharist. It is also referred to as Corpus Christi Sunday which is Latin for the Body of Christ. In many parishes, the day is marked by a Eucharist procession through the streets around the church.

While our attention is drawn to the Body and Blood of Christ at every Mass, today's celebration is about reaffirming our belief that the Communion we will take is the "Real Presence." The Gospel reading of today is from the Last Supper when Jesus presents the bread and wine to his Disciples as his Body and Blood.

As we come forward for Communion on this day, and every time we attend a Mass, let us contemplate the following words from St. Thomas Aquinas:

"O banquet most precious! O banquet most admirable! O banquet overflowing with every spiritual delicacy! Can anything be more excellent than this repast, in which not the flesh of goats and heifers, as of old, but Christ the true God is given us for nourishment? What more wondrous than this holy sacrament...In this sacrament sins are purged away, virtues are increased, the soul is satiated with an abundance of every spiritual gift. No other sacrament is so beneficial. Since it was instituted unto the salvation of all, it is offered by Holy Church for the living and for the dead, that all may share in its treasures."

Today we pray that through our reception of the Communion Sacrifice, we may be found worthy of the promises of Christ. Amen!

A CHANGE TO THE CONCLUDING DOXOLOGY OF THE ORATIONS EFFECTIVE ASH WEDNESDAY, FEBRUARY 17, 2021

"One God, for ever and ever" becomes "God, for ever and ever."

In May of 2020 the Congregation for Divine Worship and the Discipline of the Sacraments wrote to the English-speaking Conferences of Bishops regarding the concluding doxology of the Collects in the Roman Missal (which also appear in other liturgical books).

Specifically, the Congregation pointed out that the current translation – which concludes "... in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, for ever and ever" – is incorrect. There is no mention of "one" in the Latin, and "Deus" in the Latin text refers to Christ. Therefore, the correct translation, which is already reflected in the Missal in other languages (including our own USCCB Missa Romano) is simply: "[...] in the unity of the Holy Spirit, God, for ever and ever." The Cardinal Prefect has pointed out the importance of affirming this Christological truth amid the religious pluralism of today's world.

A Brief History

English translations of the Missal for use by the faithful prior to the Second Vatican Council reflected the correct translation, as for example the St. Joseph's Missals of the 1950's. However, when the post-conciliar texts were published in English, the word "one" was added.

It should be noted that when the translation of the Missal currently in use was in progress, ICEL pointed out the discrepancy to the Congregation in Rome, but was told to retain the use of "one God" in the new translation.

In light of the Congregation's most recent direction in this matter, the Latin Rite Bishops of the USCCB have voted to amend no. 54 of the U.S. text of the General Instruction of the Roman Missal to reflect the change, and the Congregation has confirmed this decision, as it already has for the Episcopal Conferences of England and Wales, Ireland, and Canada.

When should this change take place?

This change to the concluding doxology of orations is to be implemented on Ash Wednesday, February 17, 2021. The words "one God, for ever and ever" are simply replaced with "God, for ever and ever."

Is there a need to purchase a new Missal?

No. It should not be difficult for the celebrant simply to omit the word "one" when offering the prayer. However, publishers are being informed of this change, and any reprints or new editions of the Missal will reflect the new translation. Other publications, such as participation aids for the faithful, will begin to carry the new text as soon as possible. Many of these are printed well in advance, however, so it will take some time for the change to appear.

Does this change apply to other liturgical books, besides the Roman Missal?

Yes. Any time the formula appears in a liturgical book the new translation should be used. Besides the Missal, the Liturgy of the Hours is the book where it is encountered most often. Note that the orations in the current breviary are an older translation than what is found in the Missal, but the final line is the same and the new conclusion is easy to apply.

When should this be communicated to our clergy?

The results were conveyed to the Bishops of the United States in a memo from Archbishop Leonard Blair of the Bishops' Committee on Divine Worship. The memo was dated February 4, 2021 and is quoted in its entirety above. Your Bishop has certainly already conveyed this information to his presbyterate. Please share this information widely with all who prepare and celebrate liturgies in your parishes and institutions.

AROUND THE PARISH

A MESSAGE FROM FR. JOHN CARILLO

My dear Holy Spirit family,

As you already know, last Sunday was my last weekend with you. Effective June 1st, I have been assigned to a new parish, the Church of the Assumption, in San Leandro.

It's not easy to leave this parish that I love so dearly. Within a year and eleven months and after what we went through together due to the pandemic, Holy Spirit ceased to be just a "parish assignment or placement." Holy Spirit became my home. You became my family.

And so, I'd like to express my deepest gratitude to all of you who became my mothers and fathers, brothers and sisters, friends and support groups. Thank you for the home that you built for me in your hearts. Thank you for letting me into your life.

Because of you, I didn't only grow in age, gained a few pounds, got more white hair, looked much older, I also grew as a priest and matured as a person.

In a very special way, I thank Father Ken. In you, I found a good mentor, friend and brother, especially in those moments when being a priest was not easy. And together with Father Peter, I experienced with you what sacramental brotherhood is all about - a shepherd caring for another shepherd, a brother caring for a brother. Thank you, Pads!

To the amazing deacons and parish staff, to all ministers and volunteers, thank you! I have been deeply inspired by your passion to serve God and profoundly moved by your care and love for this parish. It's always a joy working with you in the vineyard of Our Lord.

Finally, I beg you, my Holy Spirit family, to remember me in your prayers and supplications to God, that as I go to my new parish, I may serve Him and His people with all that I am and all that I have. Pray that I would love the priesthood to the end, keep a grateful awareness of the gift I undeservingly received, and respond generously - totally and completely - to our Lord and his Church.

You and your loved ones will always be in my prayers. May Jesus, the High Priest and Good Shepherd, be with you. May you be filled with the Holy Spirit and make more disciples. "May Christ dwell in your hearts through faith; that you, rooted and grounded in love..., may have strength to know the love of Christ that surpasses knowledge, so that you may be filled with all the fullness of God. Now to him... be glory in the Church and in Christ Jesus to all generations, forever and ever" (Ephesians 3:17-21). Amen.

O Mary, conceived without sin, pray for us who have recourse to thee.

Jesus, King of Mercy, I trust in You!
