FROM THE DESK OF DN. TIM...

Living in California, we are faced with the reality of seismic activity. We have heard for many years the “big one” is coming, but unlike a tornado or hurricane, there is no real warning. There is no earthquake watch or evacuation order, we just learn to deal with it. But it doesn’t mean we cannot prepare for it. We can set aside an emergency food and water pack, we can make sure our house is in order and up to code, and we should have emergency contacts. We often do not want to talk about it because we are afraid, but in talking about it and preparing we realize it has no power over us.

In the Gospel, Jesus reminds us to be vigilant, to stay awake for you do not know the hour you will meet our Lord face to face. This isn’t meant to scare us; instead, it is meant to give us hope.

It is Jesus who watches over us and protects us. It is Jesus, in dying on the Cross and rising, that opened the gates of Heaven for all who believe. It is through Faith in Jesus you and I are saved, and we are offered the gift of Eternal Life.

So how do we live a vigilant life with Christ? Allow Him to lead you into a life of holiness filled with prayer, charity, and the sacramental life.

As the liturgical year comes to an end, we are reminded in all things to fix our gaze on Christ. May you be filled with His joy, hope and love, and to see He calls you forward, not as our victim but our victor. In this month of our beloved dead, may we remember to pray for the souls in purgatory who have no one to pray for them.

24-Hour Eucharistic Adoration for Vocations

November 19, 9:00 am to November 20, 7:00 am

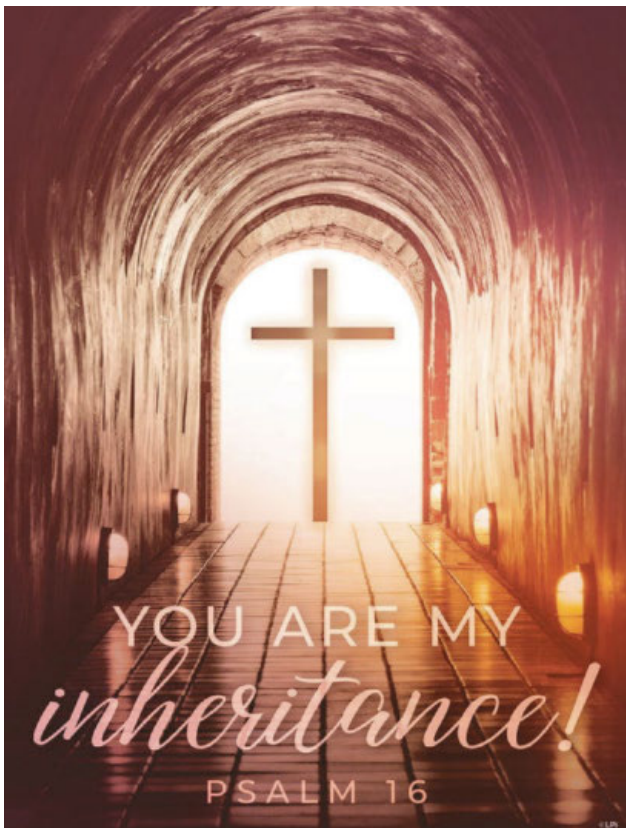

As we mark National Vocation Awareness 2021, we invite all the faithful to spend time with our Lord in Adoration in the church.

Let us altogether pray for more vocations to the priesthood, diaconate, and religious life.

To sign up, go to <https://holyspiritfremont.flocknote.com/signup/73468> or use the QR code below.

"If you are looking for vocations, as a community have adoration every day. Once the Missionaries of Charity started daily adoration, their vocations doubled."
