THE EPIPHANY OF THE LORD

They were overjoyed at seeing the star, and on entering the house they saw the child with Mary his mother. They prostrated themselves and did him homage. Then they opened their treasures and offered him gifts of gold, frankincense, and myrrh. - Mt 2:10-11

FROM THE DESK OF DN. CHUCK...

“They Prostrated Themselves and Did Him Homage”
The Epiphany of the Lord, 2022

What an intimate picture this passage from our Gospel reading of today paints in our mind. This is so much more telling than if it had read, “They visited and knelt before him.” The use of the terms ‘prostrate and homage’ adds meaning and creates for us a visual that brings home what the event is all about.

To prostrate is to give oneself up in submission or adoration. In the Rites of the Church, clergy prostrate themselves at the Altar on Good Friday and during the Litany of Saints at their Ordination. While this is a literal act and requires a physical positioning, we should always practice prostration as a spiritual act for our Christ. It is in our interest as a person and as a community to submit ourselves to Christ and to do his will in all our works. We accomplish that when we pay homage to Him and to his Father. The act of paying homage is to acknowledge you are a servant of one greater than yourself.

In this world, we give respect and honor to those who are our co-workers, bosses, parents, spouses, and others; but prostrating and paying homage should be reserved for Christ and the Father. The Magi were not Jewish, they were Gentiles. Their act of seeking the Christ child and paying homage brought the world into the oneness of Christ and gave us all hope for our salvation.

On this day, the Epiphany of the Lord, may we all discover the true wonderfulness of Christ and vow to prostrate ourselves and pay homage forever and ever.

Dn. Chuck & Sherry

“Where is the newborn king of the Jews? We saw his star at its rising and have come to do him homage.”

Matthew 2:2

GOSPEL MEDITATION

Encourage Deeper Understanding of Scripture

In his Apostolic Exhortation, The Joy of the Gospel, Pope Francis references a thought from Pope Benedict XVI: "Being a Christian is not the result of an ethical choice or a lofty idea, but the encounter with an event, a person, which gives life a new horizon and a decisive direction." Today we celebrate an encounter with the Person of Jesus Christ! This simple but holy event in time dramatically changes human life, pointing it toward a new horizon and giving it a decisive direction. This is a message and truth that is not meant to be shared with only a select few who qualify but with the entire world. Pope Francis continues saying, "Thanks solely to this encounter or renewed encounter with God's love, which blossoms into an enriching friendship, we are liberated from our narrowness and self-absorption. We become fully human when we become more than human, when we let God bring us beyond ourselves in order to attain the fullest truth of our being."

Look around at people. Where is life heading for them? What gives them direction? Even we who are people of faith can get distracted and lose our focus. God, in all of His fullness, is revealed in Jesus Christ and we can encounter Him! God is tangible, real, vulnerable, poor, and full of wonders, surprises, and opportunities. For those who are struggling and lost, today is a day of great joy. All they have to do is reach out and touch the truth of Christ. This presence is revealed in the poor, exploited, and vulnerable ones who cry out for compassion and love. But it is also found in the faithful ones who see in the Epiphany of God a liberation from structures and systems that hurt us, a narrowness of mind and heart that constricts us, and an absorption in our self-agenda that prevents us from seeing anything other than ourselves as important.

We have been given the charge of preaching this Good News. If only we could find a way to be more effective, it might stand a chance of doing what God intended it to do. There is always tomorrow and our memory of that bright new light that shone so brilliantly that Bethlehem night pointing us to truth and reminding us that we are loved.

BE MERCIFUL TO ME, O GOD,
BE MERCIFUL TO ME,
FOR IN YOU MY SOUL TAKES REFUGE.
—PS 57:1

As we celebrate the Feast of the Epiphany we pray that each person in our parish community may have a greater awareness of their gifts and may find new opportunities to share those gifts with Christ, His Church, and all people. We pray to the Lord...
