FROM THE DESK OF DN. STEVE...

When I read the Gospel for today, it brought back the memories. I first heard this story from Deacon Steve Taylor here at Holy Spirit Church, and then later Father Mathew Vellankal would always have this story in his Homily at Lent. I actually teared up as I remembered how he would always laugh even before the punch line.

There was a painter who was always cheating his customers by thinning down his paint to make it go further. He bid on a painting job at a church and won with the lowest bid. Well – as usual he thinned out the paint with turpentine.

As he neared the end of the project, there was a clap of thunder and a heavy downpour of rain. The thin paint washed away, and he was knocked off the scaffolding. He knew this was a judgment from the Almighty, so he fell on his knees and cried: "Oh God! Forgive me! What should I do?" A mighty voice spoke: "Repaint! Repaint, and thin no more!"

This Lent, if you have not already done so, repent for your sins through the Sacrament of Reconciliation. For we do not know the hour, but we can be prepared the best we can.

The Responsorial Psalm for this Sunday (Year C) says it the best:

Ps 103: 1-2, 3-4, 6-7, 8, 11

R. The Lord is kind and merciful.

*Bless the LORD, O my soul;
and all my being, bless his holy name.
Bless the LORD, O my soul,
and forget not all his benefits.*

R. The Lord is kind and merciful.

*He pardons all your iniquities,
heals all your ills,
He redeems your life from destruction,
crowns you with kindness and compassion.*

R. The Lord is kind and merciful.

*The LORD secures justice and the rights of all the oppressed.
He has made known his ways to Moses,
and his deeds to the children of Israel.*

R. The Lord is kind and merciful.

*Merciful and gracious is the LORD, slow to anger and abounding in kindness.
For as the heavens are high above the earth,
so surpassing is his kindness toward
those who fear him.*

R. The Lord is kind and merciful.

If you have not seen the series the "Chosen", try to see it this Lent. And if you have watched it before, watch it again. You may notice something new.

May God awaken something new in you this Lenten season.

Blessings,

Deacon Steve and Annette

Learn about how a series of divine interventions transformed a tiny church in the middle of nowhere into a national shrine and a devotion to the Holy Rosary that has spread across Canada throughout the world.

The Pilgrim statue of Our Lady of the Cape along with relics will also be on exhibit in the church.

*“Feed my lambs,
feed my sheep”*

2022 BISHOP'S
MINISTRIES APPEAL

“Feed my lambs, feed my sheep” refers primarily to Holy Communion, but it also extends to the ministries of instruction, catechism, schools, and charities; feeding people with the word of God, feeding people with the truth of the Catholic faith, feeding people with pastoral care.”

Bishop Michael C. Barber, SJ asks the people of the Diocese of Oakland to assist in meeting the needs of the faithful. The Bishop’s Ministries Appeal supports the ministries that go out into the parishes – faith formation and evangelization, CYO sports, formation of priests to serve those parishioners, care of the retired priests, and meeting the unexpected needs of schools and parishes.
