FROM THE DESK OF DN. CHUCK...

“Lazarus, come out!”

With these words, Jesus brings back to life his friend. This is not a resurrection. Jesus has prepared us for this moment, not only earlier in the Gospel message of today, but also in Chapter 5 of John.

In Chapter 5, we hear Jesus say, “Just as the Father raises the dead and gives them life, so also the Son gives life to whomever he wishes. I tell you, the hour is coming when the dead will hear the voice of the Son of God, and those who hear will live. The hour is coming when all who are in their graves will hear his voice and will come out.”

And now Martha says to Jesus, “I know he will rise, in the resurrection on the last day.” Then Jesus responds, “I am the resurrection and the life. Whoever believes in me, even if he dies, will live, and everyone who lives and believes in me will never die.”

Jesus did not call Lazarus out alone. He did all of this in front of those who followed him to Bethany as well as those who were present with Martha and Mary. He wanted all to see the Glory of God at work.

Just as Thomas had to see to believe after the Resurrection, the crowd around the grave of Lazarus saw the Glory of God in person. Their witnessing of these events and spreading the word to others will build the momentum for the adulation of Christ next week when he enters Jerusalem.

Dn. Chuck & Sherry

FORMED PICK OF THE WEEK

GLIMPSES ALONG THE WAY OF THE CROSS BY MONSIGNOR JAMES SHEA

<https://watch.formed.org/glimpses-along-the-way-of-the-cross-by-monsignor-james-shea>

In these three beautiful talks, Monsignor James Shea guides us along the Stations of the Cross, teaching us how to open our hearts more to the suffering and loneliness of Jesus on His way to Calvary. Weaving together the insights of keen believers like Fr. Richard Neuhaus, Caryll Houselander, Archbishop Fulton Sheen, and Dr. James Edwards, these powerful meditations take us into the depths of Christ's agony, and back out again into the joy of what His sacrifice means for us.

“I am the resurrection and the life, says the Lord; whoever believes in me, even if he dies, will never die.”

Jn 11:25a, 26
