FROM THE DESK OF FR. KEN...

Introduction:

The readings for Palm, or Passion, Sunday are the most dramatic of the whole year.

They recount the entire story of Christ's death from Holy Thursday through Good Friday. One of the unusual aspects of this week's Gospel reading is that it is the one time during the year when all of us take part in proclaiming the Word of God by participating in the Gospel reading.

Jerusalem: A Place of Suffering and of Triumph

We know from the school of life that not every day is a day of joy and bliss: there are also gloomy days of suffering, of disappointments and failure. But today, on Palm Sunday "of the Lord's Passion," we are told in no uncertain terms that this was the freely accepted lot of no less than Jesus Himself.

First, we see Jesus acclaimed in a small triumph, but then we hear how He is led to His death. One week from now, on Easter Sunday, we will hear it clearly and emphatically stated that His death led to the triumph of His own resurrection; we will also hear of the forgiveness and life He brings us.

We unite ourselves with Our Lord in His triumph, in His suffering and death, and we pray that He will make our life and death as acceptable and meaningful as His.

And the Passion Goes On...

Today and during the whole of Holy Week, our attention focuses on the sufferings which our Lord endured for our sake and how they led to His resurrection and our own rising from sin and evil – and ultimately from death. But we also keep in mind that Jesus goes on suffering today in His body, that means, in His people who are victims of injustice, deprivation, betrayal, and persecution. Let us pray for them that they may also rise with the Lord and that we may help them to rise.

Have a Blessed and Holy Week....

Fr. Ken

FORMED PICK OF THE WEEK

THE PASCHAL MYSTERY: THE MYSTERY OF JESUS' DEATH & RESURRECTION

<https://watch.formed.org/videos/the-paschal-mystery-the-mystery-of-jesus-death-resurrection>

Through Jesus's Death on the Cross, God reveals himself most profoundly as the God who is love. Christ's sacrificial love saves us from sin and shows us the pathway to true human happiness. We are made to live like Christ: in total, self-giving love.

Jesus cried out in a loud voice, "Father, into your hands I commend my spirit"; and when he had said this he breathed his last.

AROUND THE PARISH

*“Feed my lambs,
feed my sheep”*

2022 BISHOP'S
MINISTRIES APPEAL

“Feed my lambs, feed my sheep’ refers primarily to Holy Communion, but it also extends to the ministries of instruction, catechism, schools, and charities; feeding people with the word of God, feeding people with the truth of the Catholic faith, feeding people with pastoral care.”

– Bishop Barber

Bishop Michael C. Barber, SJ asks the people of the Diocese of Oakland to assist in meeting the needs of the faithful. The Bishop’s Ministries Appeal supports the ministries that go out into the parishes – faith formation and evangelization, CYO sports, formation of priests to serve those parishioners, care of the retired priests, and meeting the unexpected needs of schools and parishes.
