NOURISH

FROM THE DESK OF DN. CHUCK...

The Advocate Will Teach You Everything.

All of us can remember a favorite teacher or at least one that made an impact in our lives. One teacher that I will always remember from high school was Mrs. Ahlstrom. She was my Math teacher and helped me to learn to love numbers and how they were used in all things.

Looking back, I think the reason I did enjoy using numbers so much is the joy that she showed when instructing us on how to solve problems using them. Being in a small school, she was the only Math teacher so I had her for four years.

But her teaching me the love of numbers didn't stop with high school. About ten years ago, at the age of 90+, she introduced me to Sudoku. Now I solve at least one Sudoku puzzle every day. Thank you, Mrs. Ahlstrom, for helping to shape my life.

In today's Gospel, Jesus, the greatest teacher ever, continues His lessons to His Disciples. They haven't fully grasped the fact that He will be leaving them no matter how many times He has told them. But now He is promising that the Father will send someone in His place to teach them. The Advocate, the Holy Spirit will be sent to help them.

Just as Mrs. Ahlstrom didn't stop after teaching, Jesus promises that His teachings will not stop. They will just be done through the Holy Spirit. The promise is made; all the Disciples need to do is accept it and allow the Holy Spirit to guide them through their apostolic missions.

Are you listening to the Holy Spirit in your life? Is the Spirit teaching you to love one another? Just open yourself up accept what the Spirit brings to you.
