FROM THE DESK OF DN. RIGO...

The three readings this Sunday are in synergy...

In the first reading from Genesis, Abraham negotiates with the Lord for His mercy and finally gets the Lord to reduce the number of holy people needed to stave off the punishment of both Sodom and Gomorrah...

The second reading from Colossians lets us know that Jesus' sacrifice and eventual resurrection forgives our own transgressions...

These transgressions are alluded to in the Lord's Prayer that Jesus teaches His disciples as they ask for guidance in the art and science of prayer...

Finally, the great lesson of Jesus gives us the code on how to become not just a follower, a disciple, but an intentional one at that, to be humble enough to do this: ASK!

"...ask and you will receive; seek and you will find; knock and the door will be opened to you."

Can you dedicate your life to doing so? To be able to humbly ask the Lord for the gift of faith? To seek the virtue of hope thru a life of prayer? To knock down the barrier of pride and be merciful towards all you may encounter in your walk of life?

Above all ASK the Lord to give you strength, to trust in Him, to wait in Him, to let Him into your heart and mind. And as He promises, when He knocks at your door and you let Him in, He will seat at table with you and dine with you...

Holy people of Holy Spirit, ASK!

FORMED®

FORMED PICK OF THE WEEK

Mercy: What Every Catholic Should Know—Audiobook

<https://watch.formed.org/videos/mercy-what-every-catholic-should-know-audiobook>

In "Mercy: What Every Catholic Should Know", Fr. Daniel Moloney covers a broad range of topics regarding mercy that are prevalent for our society today...he touches upon pertinent topics such as legal punishments, the death penalty, and self-defense. He also assesses the clergy scandals...how the Church can improve moving forward for the greater glory of God. He eloquently explains how mercy is not synonymous with leniency, but is an act of responding to a privation, a lack of something which ought to be there. Sometimes the road to this may have to be tough love for the good of all involved.
