WORSHIP & MEDITATION

FIRST READING

Not by appearance shall he judge,
nor by hearsay shall he decide,
but he shall judge the poor with justice,
and decide aright for the land's afflicted.
(Is 11:3-4)

PSALM

Justice shall flourish in his time, and fullness of peace for ever. (Ps 72)

SECOND READING

Welcome one another, then, as Christ
welcomed you,
for the glory of God. (Rom 15:7)

GOSPEL

John the Baptist appeared, preaching in the desert of Judea and saying, "Repent, for the kingdom of heaven is at hand!" (Mt 3:1-2)

GOSPEL MEDITATION

Encourage Deeper Understanding of Scripture

At sixty years of age, Maria and Paul had a beautiful life. High school sweethearts, they had four children, five grandchildren, a successful business, good friends and a fabulous beach house. They felt very blessed. Their strong faith in God saw them through some difficult challenges. Without warning, Paul died suddenly. Maria was devastated. Why did God do this? Why did God allow this to happen? An indescribable depth of sadness weighed heavily upon her heart. She felt betrayed by the God she thought was looking out for her. She was overwhelmed by despair. Have you ever experienced such incredible and deafening sadness? Where is God in all of the pain?

We often want God to fix things or intervene and change nature's course. When He doesn't act as we desire, it shakes our faith. We do not always understand or appreciate why things happen as they do. There is much that is beyond our control. John the Baptist prepared the way for Jesus and Jesus is the way to God. There is something more going on in life than what we can see with human eyes. We are on a sacred path, and God is with us. God is with us in our confusion, suffering, doubts, and intense sadness. Jesus announced God's vision for humanity and taught people to see God and themselves for who they are. There is a way through and beyond all hardship and suffering. God does not abandon us.

God has a clear vision for the future, both for us individually and for our world. It is a vision of harmony and gentleness where all will live as one and the "wolf shall be a guest of the lamb." God is not indifferent. He is the God of "endurance and encouragement." In God, we see what we may be, what may come and who we can become. When Maria opened herself to God's creative presence, she learned to trust. She began to realize that she could endure more than she had imagined. She also discovered a spark of encouragement, bringing her through the sadness to where she could be. In retrospect, Maria knew that God's reassuring presence was with her.

SERVE

St. Joseph the Worker: Sister Parish Dispatch

This is Rose Arufani. She attends St. Rita Secondary School, located 2 kilometers from St. Joseph the Worker. Rose is in Form 1 (7th Grade) and receives 75% scholarship.

Share Christmas

Share Christmas, the annual gift-giving program is underway! If you'd like to give a gift to someone who may not otherwise receive a gift this Christmas, please take the appropriate tag or tags from a tree.

Gifts should be new. The tags are self-adhesive, so once you place your gift in a gift bag just attach the tag to it and put it under one of the trees in the church on any Sunday.

If you bring your gift during the week please drop it off at the Parish Office during regular business hours. All gifts must be returned before Sunday, December 18, 2022, in order for us to organize and deliver them to our recipients.
