FROM THE DESK OF DN. RIGO...

My reflection this time will be based on what my heart feels, and my mind believes on this the EVENT that transforms reality, what makes me, what transforms me. Let me say it: I am a Christian because of this event. I am Catholic because He demands that of me.

There have been many leaders in the history of humankind, leaders that have promised and in cases delivered certain results. But there has never been anyone that has stated what He stated at least three times: see Mark 8:31, Mark 9:31, and Mark 10:33-34.

He was categorical, specific, and pithy. I will be captured, judged, murdered but, I will return.

I beg you all, please look it up, pick up whatever history of the world you may find, scour the earth for text as clear as this from anybody in history. You will not find it!

So, I rejoice with you, we receive His visit today and continue praising, worshipping while seeking to serve Him. He invites all to join Him in His quest to bring the world to His Father and delights whenever we assume our right place at the table of plenty bringing others with us.

In John 17: 19-21, 24 He tells the Father:

“...I CONSECRATE myself for them, so that they also may be consecrated in truth. “I PRAY not only for them, but also for those who will BELIEVE in me through their word, SO THAT THEY MAY ALL BE ONE, as you, Father, are in me and I in you, that they also may be in us, that the world may believe that you sent me... Father, they are your gift to me. I WISH that where I am they may also be with me, that they may see my glory that you gave me, because you loved me before the foundation of the world.”

Beloved, this may be my last reflection for the HSC bulletin. I have immensely enjoyed my time with you. I leave you, but the mission is in front of us all. Let us walk together to Heaven, that we may be received with joy by Him, Jesus Divine Mercy.

This is the day the Lord has made; let us rejoice in it and be glad. (Psalm 118:24)
