Come, Holy Spirit, fill the hearts of your faithful and kindle in them the fire of your love. Send forth your Spirit and they shall be created. And You shall renew the face of the earth.

FROM THE DESK OF DN. BERNARD...

To be a disciple of Jesus, three imperatives are required.

First, denying oneself.

We must deny ourselves whatever we are holding on to, so that we can freely carry the cross.

To die to oneself is hard for it means saying “no” to yourself. It means a change in lifestyle and saying “yes” to Jesus in total surrender.

Jesus said, “For whoever wishes to save his life will lose it, but whoever loses his life for My sake will find it. What profit would there be for one to gain the whole world and forfeit his life?”

The call is tough, but the reward is unmeasurable.

Second, "we must take up our cross."

We all have our crosses in life.

Sometimes we hear people say that my husband/wife is my cross, or my mother-in-law is my cross. They may be jokes but as we utter these words, we are indicating that the cross is a burden.

Crosses come in many forms: a failed relationship, an unsatisfying job, a physical illness, and so on. On a positive side, it can become opportunities for us to grow closer to Jesus and give Him glory.

Taking up the cross should be our daily priority, focus, and direction in following Jesus at any cost and without reservations.

If you bear your crosses in life with regret, it will become for you a heavy burden, but if you bear your cross with faith and trust in Christ, then you lift your soul with joy.

If you feel the cross you bear is heavy, then by all means, pray and call on the Lord for help. God will surely come to your aid and walk with you on your journey.

By embracing your cross, by grace, you find yourself depending on God more and more each day. This is where the “empowered” position of faith comes in. God wants to give us His own divine grace to help us embrace the crosses of life.

Jesus said, "whoever does not take his cross and follow after Me is not worthy of Me."

The cross is life-giving. It should not be feared. It opens the gate to eternal life. It is, in itself, the tree of life.

Finally, we must follow Jesus.

Following Jesus means to be dedicated to Him.

It means following His examples and teachings, and obeying God’s laws.

Our true commitment to Jesus is revealed during times of trial, and following Him is an everyday challenge, but a humbling experience.

Jesus once told St. Paul: “My grace is sufficient for you, for power is made perfect in weakness.”

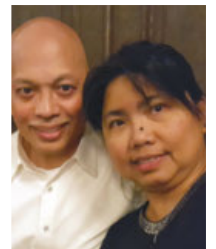

When we answer the call to follow Him, it's going to turn our lives in a different direction. We can't follow unless we go where He leads.

If we really want to follow Christ, we should really have that positive reaction to deny ourselves, take up the cross and follow Jesus.

After all, that positive symbol is the sign of the cross.

God bless us all.

Dn. Bernard & Jean
