FROM THE DESK OF DN. CHUCK...

Trust in Me

Today we hear Jesus asking the priests and elders a question about two brothers, one who tells his father yes, the other who tells him no. The point Jesus is making is that the priests and elders are preaching God's call and will, but they were not living it. Like the first brother in the Gospel who says "yes" but does nothing, they did not accept Jesus as the Christ. But those on the outside – the tax collectors and prostitutes – believed and accepted Him even though their previous lives were away from God. These outsiders were like the second brother who said "no" but came to the realization that to honor the father was to follow his wishes.

I think He's telling us: "Actions speak louder than words."

And in the first reading today from Ezekiel, we hear pretty much the same thing. "But if he turns from the wickedness he has committed, he does what is right and just, he shall preserve his life..."

Once in a while, we need to examine our own lives. Are we living hypocritical lives? Are we letting our words speak louder than our actions?

Talk is cheap! Your faith calls for much more than coming to church on Sunday. It calls for you to live your life as you have pledged to do within the walls of the church. True faith does not get checked at the door when you leave.

But when we do fall short, it's OK. It's never too late to get back on track. As Pope Francis once said in a homily: "Let us ... remember Peter: three times he denied Jesus, precisely when he should have been closest to him; and when he hits bottom, he meets the gaze of Jesus who patiently, wordlessly, says to him, "Peter, don't be afraid of your weakness, trust in Me."

Dn. Chuck & Sherry

Prayer for Radical Solidarity

O Blessed Mother, at the angel's word you went in haste to the aid of your cousin Elizabeth. Although pregnant yourself, you placed her needs before your own.

By your example of radical solidarity, teach us to reverence and protect those in need, without conditions or expectations. Ask your Son to give us unfailing determination to witness to the profound dignity of every person, at every stage and in every circumstance.

In that first Eucharistic procession, you carried Jesus to Elizabeth in her time of need. Obtain for us the grace to bring Christ to any expectant mother who is alone and afraid.

May our support help them to find hope and strength in the Lord. Amen.

OCTOBER 2023

Radical Solidarity

In the Gospel of John, shortly before he is to suffer his Passion, Jesus proclaims to his disciples: "I give you a new commandment: love one another. As I have loved you, so you also should love one another" (Jn 13:34). And it is love for one another that Jesus says will be the identifying characteristic of his disciples.

The Church's entire social doctrine is guided by the fundamental principle that every human life has innate dignity and incomparable value: "Every human being is the object of God's infinite tenderness, and he himself is present in their lives."<sup>[1]</sup> As disciples of Christ, we are called to make a sacrificial gift of ourselves for the sake of our neighbor, for "to love someone is to desire that person's good and to take effective steps to secure it."<sup>[2]</sup>

Fulfilling Christ's command to love one another takes shape in our practice of solidarity. Solidarity is the means by which we put our love for others into action, making the good of others our own. Solidarity "is not a feeling of vague compassion or shallow distress at the misfortunes of so many people... On the contrary, it is a firm and persevering determination to commit oneself to the common good...to the good of all and of each individual, because we are all really responsible for all."<sup>[3]</sup>
