

SUNDAY, OCTOBER 29, 2023 | 30TH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

WELCOME

With joy we welcome all who have gathered here with us to worship God.

“How good to sing praise to our God; how pleasant to give fitting praise.” (Psalm 147:1)

Let us lift up our minds, hearts, and spirits to our loving and merciful God, from whom all good things come.

FROM THE DESK OF SR. ANNETTE...

Loving My Neighbor

Once again, we find the Pharisees, Sadducees, and their scholars testing Jesus. “Which is the greatest?” sets up a situation for debate and controversy. These teachers and students thrive on arguing fine points of the law. Jesus responds compassionately with the famous Shema – a prayer that is recited multiple times in the daily life of the whole Jewish community as a summation of the entire Law (Deut 6:4f). No one would argue with that, but Jesus then adds (Lev 19:18) a precept of love for one’s neighbor which puts a new twist on the first and greatest commandment.

As a young woman I threw myself into whatever I was doing as a way of loving God with all my heart, soul, mind, and strength. I did this even to the point of postponing my personal prayer late into the evening. Of course, as a religious I prayed regularly with my community during the day, but that special time of just being in God’s presence allowing our relationship to grow was delayed. I had the mistaken belief that if I helped everyone else, someone would help me. Needless to say, this resulted in a burnout experience.

Although I thought I was following this first commandment, I discovered that I was missing the mark, like a car running out of gas. It was through spiritual direction I came to realize that just as we eat at regular times to keep our bodies fed and energized, we need to feed our souls. When we spend time in God’s presence, we fill our cups with God’s love and grace which then overflows into serving and caring for our neighbors. The secret, the twist that Jesus adds turns everything upside down, is found in the second commandment: loving my neighbor as myself. I cannot love my neighbor if I do not love myself. And I cannot love God if I do not love my neighbor. “Love of God cannot be separated from love of neighbor, for the neighbor is the very presence of God.” (Ilija Delio: Compassion p 70) This is not being selfish. It is only by putting our relationship with God first and relying on the graces that God gives us in these tender moments that we fill up our souls so that we can pour out love and energy in helping others. This is what it really means to love God with our whole heart, soul, mind, and strength.

We imitate Jesus, seeking time to be alone with the Father, filling our cup and serving God in compassion for our neighbor and always looking for ways to be kind, merciful and forgiving.

Prayer for Radical Solidarity

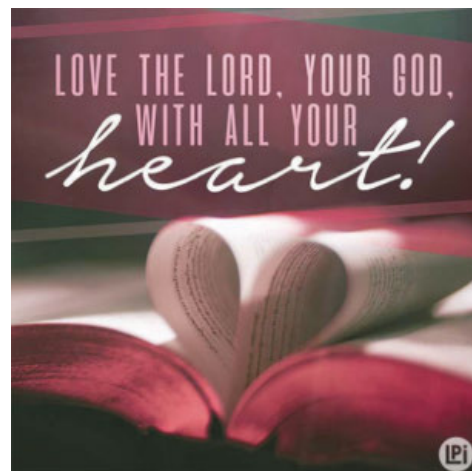

O Blessed Mother, at the angel’s word you went in haste to the aid of your cousin Elizabeth. Although pregnant yourself, you placed her needs before your own.

By your example of radical solidarity, teach us to reverence and protect those in need, without conditions or expectations. Ask your Son to give us unfailing determination to witness to the profound dignity of every person, at every stage and in every circumstance.

In that first Eucharistic procession, you carried Jesus to Elizabeth in her time of need. Obtain for us the grace to bring Christ to any expectant mother who is alone and afraid.

May our support help them to find hope and strength in the Lord. Amen.

OCTOBER 2023

A Perfect Gift

Soon after the birth of my son Charlie,* who has Down syndrome, a visitor asked whether he was "mild, moderate, or severe" - referring to his level of cognitive impairment. I was shocked. In my arms I held my beautiful boy, who defied easy categorization.

It's like looking at stained glass from the outside: the colors look dark, and you can't see the figures. But inside, with the sun shining through, the effect can be brilliant.

From inside our family, love illuminates our life with Charlie. What may seem dreary to others, perhaps even unbearable, is actually filled with beauty and color. Our love has nothing to do with his abilities. We love him simply because of who he is, and understanding this teaches us a fundamental truth: every life is a good and perfect gift.
