FROM THE DESK OF DN. CHUCK...

Our calendar year ends on December 31 each year. For many of us, we refocus our lives and make New Year

Resolutions, pledging to change. Today marks the end of our Liturgical Year. Wouldn't this be an even more opportune time to examine how we are living our lives? Are we Christ-centered? Do we believe and rejoice in our Christianity?

Since we are foremost human beings, we will fall short of the ideal individual. What can we change? How do we best live out our lives called as Catholic Christians?

The Gospel this year is very appropriate for this Sunday. Jesus describes to His disciples what will happen at the end time when He returns. He will sit on His glorious throne and separate the people between those who have followed His teachings (the sheep) and those who did not (the goats). Those who did are called to inherit the kingdom, while those who did not are sent to the eternal fire prepared for the devil. Will we change our lives so that we can be counted as sheep, or will Jesus see us as goats?

Christ is the Good Shepherd and He entrusted the world to us after His Ascension. Those that followed in His steps as shepherds will be granted eternal life with Him and the Father. This is a good reminder as we enter the Advent and Christmas seasons to not lose sight of our responsibilities to take part in the Corporal and Spiritual Works of Mercy. As Catholics, we are called to do no less.

My wife Sherry and I extend to you our best wishes for the upcoming Advent and Christmas seasons. Let us make our lives Christ-centered as we celebrate and prepare for His coming again.

Dn. Chuck & Sherry

FORMED

FORMED PICK OF THE WEEK

Our Lord Jesus Christ, The King of the Universe (Year A)

Watch formed.org

When the world ends, we are told that God is going to focus on one thing: How did we care for the poor, the sick, the suffering? Nothing else will matter. Just how we treated who Jesus called "the least" among us.

"You did it to me." (St. Teresa of Calcutta)

“When the Son of Man comes in his glory, and all the angels with him, he will sit upon his glorious throne, and all the nations will be assembled before him. And he will separate them one from another, as a shepherd separates the sheep from the goats.”

(Matthew 25:31-32)

Shepherds Field Olive Wood Handcrafts Sale

December 2-3, 2023 | Peace Center

Handcrafted religious articles from the Holy Land (Bethlehem & Jerusalem) will be sold after all Masses to support the Catholic Christian minorities in Bethlehem.

In the past, Catholic families used to sell their artwork to pilgrims who visit the Holy Land, but they are now facing economic hardship, as there are not many pilgrims are visiting the Holy Land due to political issues, and especially now because of the current war between the Israelis and Hamas.

Many Catholic families have left the Holy Land. At one time, Christians made up 20% of the Holy Land's population, but is now down to less than 1%. The struggle to preserve the Catholic identity of the birthplace of our savior; Jesus Christ, is a serious concern for Catholics around the world. Sales will be used to help and support the Catholics in the Holy Land.
