FROM THE DESK OF SR. KAREN...

This weekend we begin a new season of the Church year, Advent. We find the church decorated in purple. Some places use blue to remind us of the Mother of Jesus whom we celebrate with two feast days. This is a season of preparation for the arrival of Jesus into the world through His birth in Bethlehem. How can that be? He was born in history over 2000 years ago. How can we be preparing for His birth again? Church celebrations are very different from other historical anniversaries. In our faith we believe we can be there now in a spiritual way, but we need to prepare our hearts for this to happen. The people of Israel prepared for centuries for the arrival of the Savior. How did they do that and what must we do today to relive that experience this year?

The teachings of Jesus have given us the road map on how to welcome him again. Be in right relationship with God, self, and others. If we want to welcome Jesus into our lives, we need to spend time in prayer. We can attend the parish mission and the Marian feast of the Immaculate Conception, go on retreats, or join others in celebrating cultural experiences such as the Mass on December 12 in honor of our Lady of Guadalupe. Some people have a calendar or an Advent wreath.

Jesus instructs us to find ways to care for others. Many people help at a food shelf or a homeless shelter. Some bring gifts to neighbors, family, friends, or others. People decorate their homes and yards and send greetings. Others like to find occasions to sing carols together. There are many programs, movies, plays and other events that help us focus on preparing our hearts for the arrival of Jesus.

Some foods and family customs also help us prepare for the coming. My mother made a nut cake she called a Yule Cake that we all loved, and it was only made during Advent and wrapped in a Brandy cloth and kept in the refrigerator until Christmas.

We know Jesus gave His Spirit to us and He dwells in a special way in all of us. We wait for a deeper coming in one another, in Liturgy, Scripture, and especially the Eucharist. Our understanding is also that Jesus comes for us at the end of our lives and at the end of this world. So, during Advent we prepare for all these comings. Let us sing out our joy as we look forward to the coming of Jesus more fully in our lives. Come Lord Jesus!

“Watch therefore; you do not know when the Lord of the house is coming.” (Mark 13:35)

Shepherds Field Olive Wood Handcrafts Sale

December 2-3, 2023 | Peace Center

Handcrafted religious articles from the Holy Land (Bethlehem & Jerusalem) will be sold after all Masses to support the Catholic Christian minorities in Bethlehem.

In the past, Catholic families used to sell their artwork to pilgrims who visit the Holy Land, but they are now facing economic hardship, as there are not many pilgrims are visiting the Holy Land due to political issues, and especially now because of the current war between the Israelis and Hamas.

Many Catholic families have left the Holy Land. At one time, Christians made up 20% of the Holy Land's population, but is now down to less than 1%. The struggle to preserve the Catholic identity of the birthplace of our savior; Jesus Christ, is a serious concern for Catholics around the world. Sales will be used to help and support the Catholics in the Holy Land.
