FROM THE DESK OF DN. BERNARD...

As we celebrate the Feast of the Holy Family in this Octave of Christmas, we honor Jesus, the Blessed Virgin Mary, and St. Joseph as a perfect family. At the same time, we reflect upon this holy model of faith, love, and unity.

Just like anyone of us in numerous ways, the household of Jesus, Mary and Joseph lived the ordinary day-to-day routine that a typical family experienced – work, errands, mealtimes, household chores, childrearing, and so on. They may have solved problems, shared their joys, laughter, tears, hurt or sickness, and sorrows. I'm very sure they have encountered all this as a family, including the gossip and embarrassment they had to face when Mary was found to be pregnant. Then, envision when the Holy family migrated to Egypt; the sacrifices they made to save their child. Think about the long journey and how hard it was for all of them. Did they travel by foot or by boat, by donkey or by something else? Imagine the joy and the sorrow they felt when they presented Jesus at the temple. How about their worries when they lost Jesus? Sometimes, I would even think that the little boy Jesus could have been bullied for being good and obedient.

This is significant because it reveals God's love for family life. God, the Father, allowed His Divine Son to live this kind of life, and as a result, elevated family life to a place within the Trinity. The Holy Family reveals to us that every family is invited to share as members of God's family by encountering our ordinary daily lives with grace and virtue.

Jesus came into this world to show us the importance of a family - a father, a mother, and child/children. He could have come instantly well-developed in human form, but he didn't. Instead, He came just like anyone of us, normally conceived in the mother's womb and brought up in a household that consists of a father and a mother. In this way, Jesus was teaching us how to be humble, to be obedient and dependent to our parents, to love our families and others.

Mary and Joseph's faith in God had to be shared and taught to little Jesus. Likewise, if we believe in God and follow Jesus Christ, then by all means, catechism should begin at home. Parents should take on the responsibility of teaching their children faith and to model the virtues. They should teach the importance of praying and being dependent on God. Jesus, even in His adult life, always gave a special time to pray to God, the Father.

What makes them a Holy Family? It is their faithfulness to the will of God as well as their love, care, and respect for one another. They believed in God's plans and mostly, they trusted God especially during those times when they did not have a full understanding as to why such events were happening.

As children of God, our goal is to bring each member of our families to heaven. With faith, love, peace, and joy residing in our hearts and lives, we, too, can inspire others to become holy. Perhaps, this could be our resolution for the new year.

We wish you all a New Year filled with God's blessings.

Dn. Bernard & Jean

Prayer for the New Year

Help Us Enter the New Year

God of all time, help us enter the New Year quietly, thoughtful of who we are to ourselves and to others, mindful that our steps make an impact and our words carry power.

May we walk gently.

May we speak only after we have listened well.

Creator of all life, help us enter the New Year reverently, aware that you have endowed every creature and plant, every person and habitat with beauty and purpose.

May we regard the world with tenderness.

May we honor rather than destroy.

Lower of all souls, help us enter the New Year joyfully, willing to laugh and dance and dream, remembering our many gifts with thanks and looking forward to blessings yet to come.

May we welcome your lavish love.

In this new year, may the grace and peace of Christ bless us now and in the days ahead.
