FROM THE DESK OF DN. BERNARD ...

One of the greatest gifts God has given us is the freedom to make a choice. We all have a choice from the moment we wake up to the moment we go back to bed. The outcome of our choices may not be sufficient for all but each of us has a choice.

In today's Gospel, the disciples are asked to make a choice – a choice between life and death – just as in the first reading where Joshua asked the Israelites to make a choice, "...decide today whom you will serve..."

Jesus offers us a choice: to follow or turn away from Him. Complete surrender is essential to follow Him with all our hearts, minds, and souls, even when we face challenges and difficulties. After all, Jesus said following Him won't be easy. In doing so, we may be deprived of lots of things, particularly the earthly pleasures in life. This may be hard to accept. Because of this, many Christians today turn their backs on the faith they received. The Christian faith has been in great decline especially in the western world, particularly in Europe. It has lost its place in the mainstreams of society and has become less and less attractive. We just witnessed that in the Olympics.

Often, we live our lives where we want God to stay behind rather than placing Him in front and following Him. Many choose to take the easy way out rather than take a chance and give it their all in following Jesus. Life is not meant to be easy. The wide gate taken by many that leads to destruction (Mt 7:13); rather than the narrow gate taken by few that leads to life (Mt 7:14).

Jesus continuously offers His very self in the Eucharist, His true Flesh & Blood. Are we to deny His very presence in our lives? Many of Jesus' disciples left him; for this reason, Jesus asked the Twelve a question that still stands for all of us to this day: "Do you also want to leave?"

Jesus will never force us to follow Him. He gives us an invitation, and the free will that allows us to make our own choice. In choosing Christ, we can acclaim: "And it is no longer I who live, but it is Christ who lives in me. And the life I now live in the flesh I live by faith in the Son of God, who loved me and gave Himself for me". (Gal 2:20)

Sometimes our life can be dictated by who or what we constantly see and hear. In my case, I can say it was my grandmother. As a single mother whose husband died during World War II, she raised her family in the best way she could. Her faith in God never diminished but strengthened and grew day by day. It was through her that I witnessed one's devotion to the Lord as her daily bread that sustained her and her family. She always placed her hope and trust in the Lord. She chose to trust and follow Christ in everything she did.

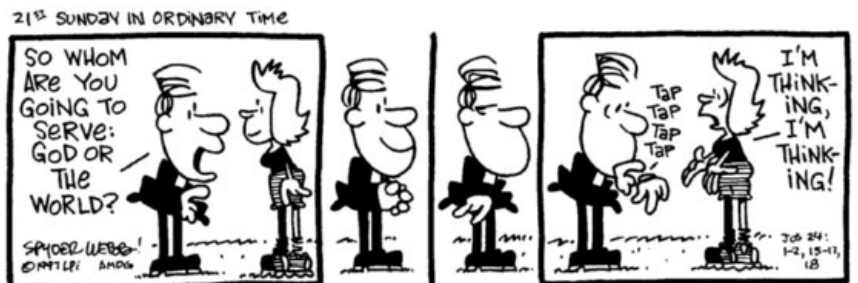

My grandmother was my guiding light who showed me a lot of good things/values/morals in life and was so influential in leading me to Christ. She never forced me; by simply living her life in reflecting Christ, she drew me closer to the Lord. She paved the path for me and all what was remaining for me was to choose and tread that path. Just like her and like St. Peter's remark: "Master, to whom shall we go? You have the words of eternal life. We have come to believe and are convinced that you are the Holy One of God."

We are called to put our faith and trust even if we don't fully understand everything Jesus says. Trust Him; He and only He has the words of eternal life.

A lot of times we make the wrong choices in life. Thankfully, we have a loving and merciful God who patiently waits for our return despite of our sinfulness. Simply choose Jesus Christ, and we'll surely never regret it. A life in Christ is a life for all eternity.

God Bless us all.

Dn. Bernard & Jean
