FROM THE DESK OF SR. KAREN...

As I reflect on the Sunday readings, I ask God's Spirit to help me understand the message for me today. Over the years, I have reflected a lot on the same passages and, each time, I find new wisdom and understanding. This weekend, I was struck by the first reading about 70 elders of Israel who were given a share in the Spirit that was on Moses. I wondered why this happened, so I read from the beginning of the eleventh chapter of Numbers, and discovered it was due to the complaints of the people (over 600,000) and Moses. The job of leading the people was bigger than Moses could handle; that is why more leaders were needed. Moses was a prophet, a person who hears and shares God's message. The new leaders would be prophets, too. The Spirit of God is what makes prophets and the messages they give are prophecies.

Do you know any prophets? From whom do I hear God speaking to me today?

Growing up, my parents, grandparents, and teachers helped me understand God's direction for my life. We reflect on the lives of the saints, and they give us guidance. Leaders in our church, Pope Francis, bishops, priests, spiritual mentors, theologians, and authors of some books can also be seen as prophets.

In the first reading, Moses hoped that all people would be prophets, and in the Gospel, Jesus recognized His Spirit at work in people who were not his followers. We know that God has given us the Spirit at baptism and strengthens that Spirit in Confirmation. As such, each one of us could be a prophet if we learn to listen to God and follow what is asked of us. At times, we may be given wisdom or guidance for other people's benefit. God's Spirit in us will help us do it with love and compassion.

May the Spirit of God be close and help you hear and respond with the prophets in your life.

Sister Karen Pozniak, SNDdeN

Prayer for Priests

Gracious and loving God, we thank you for the gift of our priests. Through them, we experience your presence in the sacraments.

Help our priests to be strong in their vocation. Set their souls on fire with love for your people.

Grant them the wisdom, understanding, and strength they need to follow in the footsteps of Jesus.

Inspire them with the vision of your Kingdom.

Give them the words they need to spread the Gospel. Allow them to experience joy in their ministry.

Help them to become instruments of your divine grace.

We ask this through Jesus Christ, who lives and reigns as our Eternal Priest.

Amen.
