WELCOME

With joy we welcome all who have gathered here with us to worship God.

“How good to sing praise to our God; how pleasant to give fitting praise.” (Psalm 147:1)

Let us lift up our minds, hearts, and spirits to our loving and merciful God, from whom all good things come.

FROM THE DESK OF SR ANNETTE...

"Lord, let your mercy be on us, as we place our trust in you." (Response for today's psalm) "For we ... have a high priest who is [able] to sympathize with our weaknesses [and] has been tested in every way, yet without sin." Hebrews 4:15

Do we sympathize with James and John in today's gospel? "Grant that in your glory we may sit one at your right and the other at your left." Mark 10:37 How human! Temptations loom in our lives: being impulsive, passing quick judgment, wanting to "get even," being unkind or vindictive, cutting another person off, seeking power and prestige, lording it over others, etc. Whether we act on these thoughts or not, we are all human and don't deserve any special privilege. It is all in God's hands. We live by grace alone.

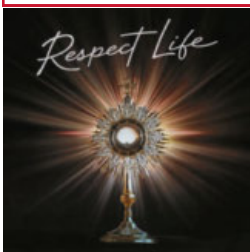

As St. Paul tells us in the letter to the Hebrews "we do not have a high priest who is unable to sympathize with our weaknesses, but one who has similarly been tested in every way, yet without sin. So let us confidently approach the throne of grace to receive mercy and to find grace...." Hebrews 4:15-16 Thus fulfilling the prophecy of Isaiah in the first reading: "he gives his life as an offering for sin ... [and] through his suffering, my servant shall justify many, and their guilt he shall bear." Isaiah 53:10-11

How many times have we been like James and John in today's gospel looking for lofty positions, desiring respect or acknowledgement from others, making our authority felt? Can we hear Jesus saying to us "You know that those who are recognized as rulers over the Gentiles lord it over them, and their great ones make their authority over them felt. But it shall not be so among you. Anyone among you who aspires to greatness must serve the rest; whoever wants to rank first among you must serve the needs of all." Mark 10:42-45 All through His life and actions, Jesus models this way of life for us. A life of loving, giving and service generously poured out without the thought of personal cost. It is only by God's grace that we can offer gifts of self and compassion. So we pray "ever-living God, grant that we may always serve [You in one another with] sincerity of heart." Prayer for today's Mass

By realizing that all we do, all we are and all we hope to become is God's gift of grace in us. Now the refrain for today's responsorial psalm "Lord, let your mercy be on us, as we place our trust in you" sings in our hearts as we continue to rely on God's continuous love, support and grace in our lives.

May you be blessed in recognizing God's grace in your life!
May you be generous in your gift of self in service to others!
May the compassion you share with others be returned to you!

Annual Mass of Remembrance

November 2, 2024 | 12:00 pm

In remembrance of our departed loved ones, especially those who died this past year, we invite our faithful to join us for Mass.

Purchase and dedicate a Memorial Candle and place it in the sanctuary during the memorial Mass.

November Memorial Altar

During November, we will have a memorial altar with photographs of our faithful departed. Bring framed 4" x 6" (or smaller) pictures of your departed loved ones to the Parish Office.

If your loved one was in the military, please let us know as they will be honored in a designated space.

Include your name and phone number on the back of the frame. Please pick up your picture frame by November 29, 2024.

Memorial Candles

Dedicate a Memorial Candle for your departed loved one and bring the candle to our Annual Mass of Remembrance on November 2, 2024 at 12:00 pm.

Candles may be purchased from the Sacristy, Parish Office, and de Sousa House. Each candle is $10 each and burns up to 6 days.

No Healing Mass in November

For the month of November, there will be no First Saturday Mass & Anointing of the Sick. In lieu of the Healing Mass, we invite the faithful to join us at 12:00 pm for our annual Mass of Remembrance.

Please note: Our prayer list is refreshed every week. Feel free to contact us to include your loved one. Go to <https://holyspiritfremont.org/request-a-prayer/> or call the Parish Office at 510.797.1660
