FROM THE DESK OF DN CHUCK...

The season of Advent begins filled with HOPE. Jeremiah's words remind us: "The days are coming, says the LORD, when I will fulfill the promise I made to the house of Israel and Judah." That promise is Jesus. Advent calls us to remember that even when life feels uncertain or difficult, God's promise is always there, Advent isn't only about passively waiting; it's about preparing for God's presence. Luke's Gospel tells us that "people will die of fright in anticipation of what is coming upon the world." But FAITH will sustain them until they see the Son of Man coming in glory. This season invites us to ask: Are we ready to say "yes" to Christ's coming in our lives? Are there areas of our hearts that need to be made ready to receive Him?

Advent is also about joyful expectation. As we light the Advent candles each week, the growing brightness reminds us that Christmas is approaching. But the JOY of Advent goes deeper than just counting down to Christmas Day. It's a joy rooted in the promise of God's faithful love and the assurance that God is with us. The real joy of Advent is that God has come near, and He will never leave us.

Finally, Advent invites us to live out God's LOVE in practical ways. As we prepare for Christmas, let's remember that this season is not just about celebrating, but also about reaching out. Christ came in humility and love, and as His followers, we are called to embody that same love to others, especially to those in need.

As we begin Advent today, let us embrace this season as a time of hope, faith, joy, and love. Let's open our hearts to the miracle of God's coming and draw others closer to Him by spreading his love. May this Advent season be a time of renewal and deepened faith for each of us, as we await the celebration of Christ's birth and look forward to His coming again

Dn. Chuck and Sherry

Shepherds Field
Olive Wood
Handcrafts Sale
Dec. 14-15, 2024
Peace Center

Handcrafted religious articles from the Holy Land (Bethlehem & Jerusalem) will be sold after all Masses to support the Catholic Christian minorities in Bethlehem.

In the past, Catholic families used to sell their artwork to pilgrims who visit the Holy Land, but they are now facing economic hardship, as there are not many pilgrims are visiting the Holy Land due to political issues, and especially now because of the current war between the Israelis and Hamas.

Many Catholic families have left the Holy Land. At one time, Christians made up 20% of the Holy Land's population, but is now down to less than 1%. The struggle to preserve the Catholic identity of the birthplace of our Savior, Jesus Christ, is a serious concern for Catholics around the world. Sales will be used to help and support the Catholics in the Holy Land.
